

I Love My Creation

A message from Jesus

One of the greatest gifts someone could give you is to love you for who you are.

Everyone has flaws, and things don't always go perfectly in one's life. Everyone makes mistakes, fails, falls, and hits bottom. I want you to realize the extent of My love for you in spite of your failings and mistakes.

When I look at you, what I feel for you is impossible to express with mere words. I love you for who you are. Life on earth is a journey, and it's going to be difficult at times. I know that it's impossible for you to not stumble, to not make wrong decisions sometimes, to not get lost along the way, to not get weary or discouraged, to not question My love for you. But during these moments when things are most difficult, you can find comfort and assurance in the fact that I love you in spite of it all.

You are not a disappointment because you are imperfect or because you're not like someone else. I don't compare you with others or measure your accomplishments against theirs. You are My beautiful creation, fashioned as a sculptor would fashion a sculpture. I'm proud of you, My creation.—You're beautiful, unique, and precious.

Notable Quote:

It's quite a compliment to have been manufactured by the same "company" that made the universe, as diverse and complex as it is. But do you know what? As great and awesome as the universe is, so is the value I place on each one of you.—Jesus